CILC Announces the Pinnacle Hall of Fame Award

The Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration (CILC) is a 501(c) 3 non-profit organization, founded in 1994, and is the nation's leading clearing house for interactive, virtual programs for students and Lifelong Learners. CILC is pleased to announce its first annual Pinnacle Hall of Fame Award.

Each year, Content Providers from around the world are recognized for their "Programs of Distinction," and for receiving outstanding ratings on program evaluation by educators and activity directors. Content Providers, representing museums, science centers, art galleries, zoos, aquariums, musicians, and authors, as recipients of this annual award, stand out as demonstrating remarkable quality of educational content and exceptional skill at program delivery. This year we are launching the Pinnacle Hall of Fame award for Content Providers that have been recognized for 10+ years of quality programming.

Janet Zanetis, Managing Director, states that "the Pinnacle Hall of Fame Award recognizes the best of the best. These winning organizations demonstrate continued excellence year after year and it is time for them to be recognized for their highly rated and long-standing programs. We look forward to inducting new members to our Pinnacle Hall of Fame every year."

Jerry Csaki, Director of Youth and Education at the Pro Football Hall of Fame says "The Pro Football Hall of Fame is honored to not only receive the distinguished Pinnacle Award for the 2019-20 school year, but we are especially proud to be one of only 15 content providers from around the world to be a part of the Pinnacle Hall of Fame Award. Our mission is to 'Honor the Heroes of the Game, Preserve its History, Promote its Values and Celebrate Excellence Everywhere' and our video conferencing programs are one of many ways our team fulfills this mission. We love working with the CILC, as they have been an amazing asset to 501(c)(3) organizations like the Hall of Fame and to teachers around the world."

The Pinnacle Awards were first awarded in 2008 and has become a CILC tradition.
